

POLICEMAN NILLSON EXONERATED.

Clifford Woman Could Not Make Good Her Story—Sent Back to the Island.

A final hearing in the examination of the charges made by Nellie Clifford against Policeman Carl A. Nilsson was held before Magistrate Flanner at the Centre Street Police Court yesterday. The Clifford woman stated in a letter that she had been wrongfully arrested by the policeman to fill the place of a woman named Alice McLaughlin, who had escaped on the way to the Criminal Courts building on Tuesday morning. At the hearing yesterday, the woman, after giving her version, was unable to tell a coherent story of her whereabouts on the night when Nilsson says he arrested her. Yesterday the baronet of the saloon at 16th Street, where she says she was held, told her he had been held there after 7 o'clock in the evening.

Magistrate Flanner exonerated Policeman Nilsson and sent the woman back to the Island to serve a sentence of thirty days.

BACCALAUREATE IN THE CRYPT.

Sermon to Columbia Students to Be Preached at St. John the Divine.

This year, and for many years to come, it is believed, the baccalaureate of Columbia will be delivered in the new Cathedral of St. John the Divine, now in process of construction on the heights nearby. President Seth Low suggested the use of the cathedral by the graduating class next year. He proposed the subject "The University," which was accepted, and at once tendered to President Low the privilege of holding the services in the crypt of the cathedral, where public worship has been held on Sunday since January.
